Guarding Gateways To Tokyo

Liberation of Luzon Shifts Pacific Spotlight To Other Areas

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—A fleet of 450 or more Superfortresses today attacked three important seaports on the Japanese home island of Kyushu and a manufacturing center on Honshu.

The targets of the multiple strike included the port cities of Sasebo, which previously had been hit, and Maji and Nobeoka, struck for the first time.

Okayama, site of an army training center and industrial center on Honshu, likewise was attacked for the first time.

By Leonard Milliman
Associated Press War Editor

Invasion-worried Japan created a special defense command to guard the approaches to Tokyo today as the officially proclaimed liberation of Luzon island in the Philippines shifted the Pacific spotlight to unusual Allied activity at either end of the broken Nipponese empire.

Sobering American naval losses in the Ryukyu island campaign, boosting the cost of Okinawa to 43,619 American casualties, were reported simultaneously with the first U. S. naval task force penetration of the Okhotsk sea north of Japan which knocked out a five-ship convoy and partial confirmation of the bombardment of Balikpapan in Borneo, which Tokyo said was in its twentieth day.

"Everybody in Japan is talking of invasion," Tokyo admitted. One Nipponese correspondent said the country was preparing special suicide attack weapons, almost equalling the number of tanks and guns used in the European war.

New Defense Command

The Mikado's government created a "Tokyo Defense Army Command" under Maj. Gen. Minoru Iimura to counter "enemy attempts at invasion. That is the Ninth Regional Defense Command in Japan, three of them created this month.

Tokyo's invasion list included possible landings on Japan, China the Malay peninsula with its prized Singapore naval base, Balikpapan and its oil refineries, and Kume island where unconfirmed reports said American assault troops have already landed to extend the American invasion bases in the Okinawa region.

Allied announcements ignored invasion reports but told of American divisions and Filipino guerrillas closing a twenty-mile gap in Luzon on islands Cagayan valley climaxing a campaign that overran the 200-mile valley in 23 days.

Bitterly Fought Campaign

Gen. Douglas MacArthur described the battle for the valley and its surrounding mountain country as "one of the most savage and bitterly fought in American history." Junction in the valley, he said, virtually completed liberation of Luzon island, largest and last in the Philippines to be proclaimed liberated.

Japanese dead mounted to 113,593 compared with 15,178 American casualties, including 3,793 dead, 34 missing, 11,351 wounded. The same disproportionate figures for sea and ground forces were announced in the Okinawa campaign—114,851 Japanese killed and captured; 46,319 Americans killed, wounded or missing. New American figures were exclusively naval—4,907 killed and missing, 4,824 wounded.

Destroyer Damaged

Damage to the destroyer Halsey Powell, 90 miles off southern Japan by a suicide plane March 20, was also announced last night. She suffered 41 casualties and fought three days to escape sinking. She is undergoing repairs at Long Beach, Calif.

Of the 1,400 American ships involved in the Okinawa operation, 33 were sunk and 60 damaged.

On Okinawa Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell took over command of the U. S. Tenth army, which includes the Seventh division he formerly commanded. Reportedly invaded Kume island is 50 miles closer to China, a familiar stamping ground of Stilwell.

Sedalians at Truman Party

Three Sedalians, Rev. and Mrs. H. U. Campbell and daughter, Mrs. Bert O. Hathaway, whose husband is in the service, 315 West Fourth street, were participants in the homecoming ceremonies, and reception for President Harry S. Truman, in his home town, Independence, Wednesday.

The reception and stag dinner for the president were at the home of Mr. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Roger Sermon and Mr. Sermon, who is mayor of Independence, and a long-time friend of President Truman.

The Sedalia Family Greeted the President, Spent Some Time at the Reception at the Sermon Home Where the Chief Executive Was Welcomed by His Former Neighbors, and Later in the Evening When the Dinner Guest List Grew Until There Were a Number of Extra Persons, Including Numerous Secret Service Men, to Be Served, Rev. Campbell Went Back to Assist.

Rev. Campbell and family were guests for the day of his mother, Mrs. Bertha I. Campbell, and another sister, Mrs. Fred Lamkin and Mr. Lamkin, who live across the street from the Sermon home.

With the U. S. 24TH DIV. NEAR DAVAO, Mindanao, June 28—(AP)—After the furious little pitched battle with the Japanese, Sgt. Brice Green, of Raysal, W. Va., had a bruised stomach—and a fast-falling pair of pants.

An enemy bullet hit the left side of his chest at the blouse pocket. It penetrated a billfold. It cut a bible in two. It struck armor plate on a second bible. Then it grazed his stomach as it glanced downward—and cut the buckle of the Japanese belt he was wearing.

Daughter of Man Murdered Writes Police

Seeks Information Of Tragedy in This County in 1925

A letter received by Chief of Police Anson Fennell this morning from Mrs. Ruth C. Smyth, Maple avenue, West Chester, Pa., asks for information concerning the death of her father, Alden R. Clawson, who was found dead near Sedalia in August, 1924. The letter follows:

"June 25, 1945
"Chief of Police Sedalia, Mo.
"Dear Sir: I am writing to you for information concerning my father, Alden R. Clawson, who was found dead near Sedalia in August, 1924. The only information I have regarding his death is a newspaper clipping saying that one Everett Adams was at the time being questioned.

"My father was at that time a resident of Newburgh, N. Y., I believe. I have no idea why he was in Missouri at the time. I wonder if you would be kind enough to tell me in a letter some of the facts of the case, the circumstances as they ultimately developed and also, if possible, any information you might have concerning his family and background.

"I realize this may be asking quite a favor of you to dig into your files as far back as 1924, but this matter is of the greatest importance to me. I am his only child and I know very little about my father or any of my relatives.

"Sincerely and gratefully yours,
"Mrs. Ruth C. Smyth
"530 Maple avenue,
"West Chester, Pa."

Sedalians Recall Murder

"Sedalians will recall the brutal murder in this county, although the year was 1925 instead of 1924, when Everett Adams, then 16 years old, picked up and questioned in Garden City, Kas., about a car in which he was riding, admitted he had killed the owner of the car, who was giving him a ride, thrown his body in a roadside ditch near LaMonte, and taken the car.

It was learned the murdered man was a Mr. Aden R. Clawson from Lodi, N. Y., a school teacher, who was riding through the state enroute west.

Adams was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Little More Meat in July

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—There'll be a little more meat on the nation's dinner tables in July but not enough to cut ration values.

The OPA announces today that the supply will be five per cent greater than this month, but at the same time handed out this gloomy news:

From next Sunday through July 28 margarine will cost 14 points a pound instead of 12, while canned fish will require two or three more points a pound.

On the brighter side, cheese point values will be reduced from two to four points a pound, depending on the kind.

Current ration values on butter and all canned fruits and vegetables will be maintained through the July period.

Willow Run Bomber Plant Completes Run

DETROIT, June 25—(AP)—The big $100,000,000 Willow Run bomber plant came to the end of its war job today with the completion of the last four-engined Liberator bomber plane.

With the end of the European phase of the war, the army air forces announced it had all the Liberators it needed; other types of bombers would take over the job in the Pacific.

The final bomber, scheduled to roll off the automobile-type assembly line late this afternoon, was the 8,685th made in the plant by the Ford Motor company. The big bomber was assembled in September, 1942.

Ratification Of Charter Up to Senate

Eyes of the World Centered on America, States Connally

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—"We leagued our armed might for war," Tom Connally told the senate today. "Now let us league our moral and material might for peace."

Thus the tall Texas Democrat, chairman of the foreign relations committee and a delegate at the San Francisco conference, opened the campaign for speedy ratification of the United Nations charter by a highly receptive senate.

"The world charter for peace is knocking at the doors of the senate," he said, adding: "We shall not turn it away."

Admittedly worn by nearly nine weeks of day and night deliberations at the conference, the broad-shouldered Texan strapped on his legislative spurs and called for a speedy, favorable decision in his committee and the senate itself.

"Early ratification here will stimulate and encourage ratification by other nations," he declared. "The eyes of the entire world are centered on what we do here."

U. S. Decision Important

"Foreign nations know that the United Nations organization for peace and security will face failure and futility unless the United States is a member. The fate of world peace may depend upon our decision."

Connally seemingly had no doubt what that decision would be. Before he spoke, he estimated to reporters that no more than ten senators would oppose ratification. Bolstering his prediction was an Associated Press tabulation showing 54 members who plan to vote for the charter barring unforeseen developments, five more who say they probably will and none who would go on record in outright opposition.

Describing the charter as "a monumental performance," Connally told his colleagues:

"Here documents and language and phrases cannot themselves prevent war and preserve peace. They must rest upon the will and the purposes and the desires of the peoples and nations of the world."

Sketching a broad outline of the developing organization, he devoted particular attention to the widely discussed veto power vested in the Big Five nations, permanent members of the 11-nation security council.

Peace, If United

"The basis thesis of the rule of unanimity of the five permanent members of the security council is that as long as the great powers remain united, they shall be able to preserve the peace of the world," Connally said.

"If the great powers should be divided—if discord should arise—they could not successfully preserve international peace."

Connally gave repeated assurance that the rights and sovereignty of this nation will not be imperiled by participation in the organization.

"We must remember, however, that world peace will cost something," he said. "It is worth something."

"It will cost cooperation. It will cost the will for peace. . . . War can be prevented by international cooperation."

"In the charter we have endeavored to construct the mechanism to create that cooperation for the peace. . . . It is a noble beginning."

Hurrying Men Out of Army

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney reported today that 89,408 soldiers in the Mediterranean area are eligible for discharge and that all of them will be homeward bound in September.

"I'm doing my best to get everybody out as soon as possible, especially the high point men," McNarney told a news conference.

By December, he said, only 50,000 American troops will be left in the area, and by the end of January the number will be cut to 2,680 salvage troops. In addition, he said there will be 5,000 air corps troops left there but they will be under the command of the European theatre occupation air force.

The number of strikes in June was not known but the Bureau of Labor statistics in Washington said there were 425 strikes and lockouts last month. Involved were 310,000 workers and loss of work amounted to 2,025,000 man-days.

The Detroit situation remained in status quo, with more than 50,000 remaining away from their jobs, most of them from the big motor companies. In two other major strikes, affecting 16,700 Goodyear Tire & Rubber company employees at Akron, O., and 15,000 glass workers in 11 cities, there were no immediate indications of settlement.

White Shirts Not in Stock

KANSAS CITY, June 28—(AP)—President Truman, too, has trouble finding white shirts these days.

Enroute from his office to the University of Kansas City, the president ordered his party detoured several blocks to permit him to stop for a chat with his old war buddy and former business partner, Edward Jacobson.

As he entered Jacobson's haberdashery, the president turned to reporters and said, "Eddie and I used to have one like this."

President's Homecoming

President and Mrs. Truman Married 26 Years ago Today

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., June 28—(AP)—The first lady, Mrs. Harry Truman, is celebrating more than the president's homecoming today. This is the Trumans' 26th wedding anniversary.

The couple were married June 28, 1919, in Independence, shortly after his return from the war. They were engaged before President Truman went overseas.

Modest and retiring, Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret have taken little active part in the festivities arranged in welcoming the president. Mrs. Truman awaited his arrival at their newly decorated home yesterday while Margaret and Vivian Truman, the president's brother, went to the airport to meet him.

Mrs. Truman made her first appearance at the reception in the church last night, and the assemblage rose to honor them. She and Margaret will be in Kansas City with the president today for the various picnics, dinners and receptions, and the address at the auditorium.

Then the family will go back to Independence for two days of rest and quiet before the president returns to Washington Sunday.

Shortly after his momentous press conference yesterday, President Truman went to visit his 92-year-old mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman at Grandview, Mo.

"I knew you'd come to see me," his mother said. They talked about 19 minutes.

Clark Chief In Austria

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark has been designated chief of United States occupation forces in Austria, under secretary of war Patterson announced today.

Clark, who commanded the 15th army group in the Italian campaign, will be the supreme American authority on military government and political problems in the United States occupation zone in Austria, Patterson said.

With some variations, Patterson added, Austria will be occupied in the same manner as Germany—Vienna, the capital, also will be divided into four zones similar to the pattern on the division of Berlin.

The governor said he means to straighten out Michigan's Gov. Harry F. Kelly on Missouri geography. Notes inviting the Donnellys to lunch at the summer mansion were addressed to St. Charles, Mo. But St. Charles hasn't been the state capital since 1825.

The Donnellys will return July 6.

Father to Son's Aid
EL PASO, Texas, June 28—(AP)—A Philadelphia father, making a one-day plane flight to Texas, is here today to aid his son, charged with murder and lying critically wounded in a hospital.

William R. Main, an official of Main & Co., accountants, arrived here last night from Philadelphia. His son, William F. Main, 28, is charged with murder in the decapitation slaying of an 80-year-old man.

The veterans included elements of the 65th, 66th, 71st and 106th infantry divisions, the Eighth air force, the 101st Airborne division, and the Fourth Armored division.

President is Overwhelmed By Treatment

KANSAS CITY, June 28—(AP)—"I am overwhelmed by my treatment here," the president told a gathering of 2,000 persons on the University of Kansas City quadrangle.

"I can't for the life of me understand what it is about me now that, when I go down the street, makes people say in hushed tones 'There he goes now,' and 'That's him, the president.' I don't understand it because I am still just the same man you have known for 30 or 40 years.

"Last night I was overwhelmed by that great outpouring of people in Independence. I believe I could have called at least 5,000 of those 8,000 to 10,000 persons there by their first name and the rest I could have called Mr. and Mrs.

"Here today I can call almost all of you by your first name and I just want to continue to do that."

The president, who attended the school of law from 1923 to 1925, will be given an honorary degree of laws, the first his alma mater has ever bestowed.

Charles Ross, the president's press secretary, in making the announcement refused to comment on reports that James F. Byrnes, former war mobilization director, would be named for the post.

Ross said Stettinius' resignation was effective yesterday and that Joseph C. Grew would continue as acting secretary until a successor has been confirmed by the Senate.

The president will be in his offices here Friday and Saturday, Ross said, and would be glad to receive Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee in 1936, should Landon care to call. No formal invitation has been sent the former Kansas governor, who lives at Topeka, 68 miles away. Mr. Truman previously has said he would be glad to see both Landon and Thomas E. Dewey, the 1944 Republican nominee.

Few Engagements
There were few formal engagements for the president Friday and Saturday.

Formal resignation of Lewis B. Schwellenbach as federal district judge in Washington state was received by the president today. Schwellenbach becomes secretary of labor June 30.

He planned to make the most of his reunion with the home-folks before starting for Berlin early next month for a "Big Three" meeting at which he hoped to help lay the groundwork for a final peace treaty "we hope will maintain the peace of the world for generations to come."

The president made no effort to challenge reports that James F. Byrnes is his choice for a new secretary of state at his press conference yesterday at Independence. He declined to talk about other cabinet changes he may have in mind.

His idea, apparently, was to emphasize the importance of the assignment for which he picked Stettinius, that of American representative to the United Nations world peace league projected under the charter approved at San Francisco this week.

Informal Chat With Newsmen

President Goes To His Own Barber For Hair Cut; Has Gift for His Wife

KANSAS CITY, June 28—(AP)—President Truman held an impromptu and informal chat with reporters today—while Frank Spina, the battery barber in Truman's old World War I outfit, trimmed the presidential hair.

Truman told reporters that he saw little hope for any special observance of his 26th wedding anniversary today, but that he had a present for Mrs. Truman.

Spina, who has been cutting the president's hair since 1917 whenever Truman was at home, said Mr. Truman was mighty glad to see him.

"I shouted 'Hi Cap,' when he went by in the parade yesterday. The president waved at me and pointed to his head, and I knew what he wanted."

The president shook hands with upward of 200 persons this morning, half of them while Spina worked.

He told reporters he had no comment on a House appropriations sub-committee food report.

His Dentist a Major
For 25 years back home, Maj. George M. Arrowsmith was Harry S. Truman's dentist. Now that Truman is president, Arrowsmith is the president's personal dentist.

Several weeks ago Arrowsmith, now stationed at Ft. Myers, Va., dropped in at the White House to see his old patient.

"George," the president said, "You've been taking care of these teeth of mine for a long time—about 25 years, I guess. How about continuing the job?"

Nothing more was said until last night when Arrowsmith, home on leave, reminisced with the president at the home of Roger T. Sermon, mayor of Independence, Mo.

"Is it, or is it ain't?" he said as he shook the president's hand. "George, you know you are," was the reply.

KANSAS CITY, June 28—(AP)—President Truman will send the name of his nominee to succeed Edward R. Stettinius as secretary of state to the Senate Monday.

Carrier Is Saved To Fight Again

Casualties On Bunker Hill 656 When Set Afire By Suicide Planes

WASHINGTON, June 28 — (P) — Japanese suicide planes scored two direct bomb hits on the carrier Bunker Hill, causing 656 casualties, but the flagship of Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher survived four hours of flaming death and will fight again.

The navy disclosed Wednesday that the Bunker Hill, despite losses of 373 dead, 19 missing and 264 wounded in the tragic episode off Okinawa May 11, is home under her own power for repairs at the Puget Sound navy yard.

A daring maneuver which literally flung the fire from her hangar deck capped the heroic efforts of her crew and assisting ships to conquer the flames.

Three hours after the attack, firefighters were still waging a nip and tuck battle in the flaming deck.

Turn To Saving Ship

The men of the Bunker Hill immediately turned to the task of saving their ship. Fires and exploding ammunition swept the flight deck where pilots and crewmen had been caught in their planes, but most of them escaped. Below, where the second bomb went off, the hangar deck quickly became a furnace fed by gasoline from several fuel lines and exploding ammunition from parked planes.

Despite intense heat and suffocating smoke, men stood by their posts to ward off further attacks while firefighters fought the flames.

"There were so many acts of outstanding heroism, it would be impossible to praise anyone over another," said Capt. George A. Seitz, Coronado, Calif.

He recommended 280 of his officers and men for awards.

Early in the ship's fight for life, the Wilkes-Barre and the destroyers Stembel, Charles S. Sperry and English moved in to add their hose to the fight.

Merry-Go-Round

by DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, June 28 —Now that all the hullabaloo over Poland has subsided, inside diplomatic reports from Europe indicate that the Lublin-Warsaw Polish government is not going to be such a Russian puppet government after all.

Despite the fact that the Lublin-Warsaw Poles were called all sorts of pro-Red names by the London Poles, they are now getting just as independent and, to some extent, arrogant as their London brothers.

Or, as some neutral diplomats summarize it:

"A Pole will always be a Pole whether he's in London or Lublin."

Illustrative of how the Poles are feeling their oats was a meeting which took place at Moscow last week regarding the Polish row with Czechoslovakia. The meeting was attended by Russian under secretary for foreign affairs Vyshinsky; also by ex-premier Mikolajczyk of the London Poles, plus Morowski of the Lublin-Warsaw government.

Morowski, though supposedly a Soviet puppet, started the fireworks by ranting against the Czechs. He said the Czechs had no right to Teschen, a small coal mining town which had always been Czech, but which the Poles snatched away from Czechoslovakia when she was powerless in Hitler's hands after Munich.

Soviet Commissar Vyshinsky emphatically differed with Morowski. He pointed out that the Poles have peaceful means for settling their disputes, should not use the aggressive tactics of the Nazis. Finally Morowski subsided.

Soviet Hold Slips

Other uncensored diplomatic reports show that the Warsaw-Lublin Poles are getting tougher and more independent and that the Soviet grip is slipping. Here are some developments which, for some queer reason, have been hushed up by European censorship:

1. Twelve Catholic papers are now being published in Poland. (There has been considerable opposition to the Lublin Poles by Catholic groups, on the grounds that the church was being suppressed.)

2. The Warsaw-Lublin Poles have indicated they want all alliance with the United States and Great Britain just as strong as that with the Soviet. This, they say, would guarantee Polish independence.

3. Poles are already demanding that the Red army withdraw from Poland; also, that the Soviet secret police withdraw.

4. The Lublin Poles also resent the latest Russian attitude of friendliness to the German people, which they criticize as a symbol of unprincipled Soviet bidding for German support in order to counterbalance the pro-Germanism of certain British leaders.

5. The Lublin Poles also resent Russia's opposition to Polish expansion in the northwest, where the Poles would like to take over the German city of Stettin.

6. Finally, the Lublin Poles resent the fact that the Russians now insist upon bringing outsiders into the Polish government—in line with the Hopkins-Stalin conversations. Stalin promised Hopkins to give ex-Premier Mikolajczyk of London and other Polish leaders cabinet seats in the Lublin government, which means that some of the Lublin Poles will have to give up their cabinet posts. Naturally, they are sore.

So it looks as if the Polish puppet pot, which once boiled against the London exiled Poles, is now simmering against its friends in Moscow.

Hands off Churchill
One of the well-kept secrets of the last presidential campaign was a statement Winston Churchill prepared urging the American people to reelect Franklin Roosevelt.

The statement, however, was never made public. Roosevelt heard what Churchill was planning to do and stopped it. He explained to the British prime minister that as much as he appreciated his good intentions, the American people resented outside interference in their politics.

Undoubtedly Churchill was planning reciprocity for the help which Harry Hopkins had given him two years before. At that time, the winter of 1942, just after Pearl Harbor, Churchill faced growing criticism in parliament.

So Harry Hopkins went to London and with Roosevelt's blessing dropped the word quietly in British political circles that the president of the United States appreciated the fine cooperation he was getting from the prime minister and would be sorry to see any change of British leadership.

Harry Hopkins was very open and above board about this and later told friends in Washington about the worry he and Roosevelt had felt regarding Churchill's tight political position.

A lot of water has passed down the Potomac since then and today things are different. Today the White House is keeping strictly hands-off the British election. In the first place, President Truman does not have President Roosevelt's intimate and personal friendship with Churchill. If anything, he is a little unsympathetic. Regardless of this, however, it is the belief of many American political leaders that it would be very unwise to dabble in British politics even in the most oblique manner.

Furthermore, there is a considerable body of opinion in the senate which has been quietly though definitely critical of Churchill's policies in Greece, Belgium and Italy, and which feels that Churchill has played the old British balance-of-power game to stir up trouble between the United States and the Soviet. Were a more liberal prime minister in office, many senators feel that our cooperation with both Britain and the Soviet would be easier.

All of which is why the White House is watching the British political struggle with keen interest but meticulously keeping hands off.

Capital Chaff

In view of the lumber shortage and the terrific wartime destruction of forests in the south and northwest, a drive has started for a renewal of the civilian conservation corps after the war. This may be the answer to conservation.

Decision on the time congress will adjourn for the summer has been awaiting the return of Senators Tom Connally and Arthur Vandenberg from San Francisco.

Democratic leaders would like to remain in session until not only the United Nations charter is approved but also Bretton Woods. This would continue congress until the middle of August. Others are itching to get away from the hot weather immediately—despite the fact that the boys in the Pacific get no rest from either the heat or the enemy. . . . While old fashioned brass hats talk about a big land army after the war, General Bayerlein, commander of the Panzer Lehr division, now a prisoner, has given some interesting information to U. S. officers abroad. He reports that if the U. S. army had stepped up tactical air warfare last August, after our breakthrough into France, we could have won the war sooner.

At that time, U. S. planes were bombing German factories but not concentrating heavily on tactical bombing—in other words bombing of enemy troops. . . . Wonder what the effect would be if the new Goop bomb, which spreads unquenchable fire in every direction, were dropped wholesale on Japanese troops in action?

U. S. and Franco's Radio

Top officials of OWI are seriously considering using the American taxpayers' money to buy time on Franco's Spanish radio network.

Up until last week, OWI was broadcasting over the Rabat, North African station (which is French) in order to reach the Spanish people. According to OWI executive Thurman Barnard, "several programs a day carrying the American story are broadcast to the Spanish people."

But despite the recent action of the San Francisco conference in plainly vetoing the admission of Fascist Spain into the United Nations, OWI is now considering a radio hookup over Franco's government owned network.

Tests Prove Parachutes Practical for Delivery Of Fragile Air Freight

Dishes packed for ordinary air express shipment are unwrapped by PCA chief hostess Katherine Hariman, after they were dropped by parachute during demonstration at National Airport.

By S. Burton Heath

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The real benefits of this air age can be brought home to thousands of smaller communities through a development in cargo parachuting that was demonstrated at the National Airport by Pennsylvania Central Airlines and the Switlik Parachute Company.

Mail, air cargo and general aviation executives of this and other countries were impressed when they watched a standard DC-3 airliner, breezing past at 130 miles an hour, drop chinaware, watches, bottled medicines and phonograph records from a height of 300 feet on a small target, without so much as denting the corner of a package.

These fragile items and others more durable, were not specially packaged. They were in ordinary cardboard cartons, packed just as they would have been for mail or rail express or department store delivery. A couple of the boxes missed the grass target narrowly and landed on a cement apron, but so gently that no semblance of damage was done.

Special Parachute

Switlik devised a special parachute and PCA engineers developed a device that tosses packages out of the cargo door so that they can not get into tail controls and so that as many as six, at least, will hit in a very small area.

There are as yet only 373 cities in this country with direct air service. This number presumably will be increased after the war, but there still will be thousands of substantial communities that will be able to send or receive air mail and cargo only by train or road shuttle to airports.

By use of the parachute it would be possible for a through plane, dipping low over a prepared target in such a town, to drop both mail and cargo on the spot.

Just Town Talk

THE OTHER Day A GENTLEMAN WITH SOME LUGGAGE TO BE PLACED IN A Car SENT A Helper OUT WITH THE HEAVY GRIPS POINTING TO A CERTAIN MAKE OF CAR TELLING HIM TO PUT THEM IN THE BACK PART GOING OUT A FEW MINUTES Later THE GENTLEMAN GLANCED BACK TO SEE IF THE LUGGAGE WAS IN ALL RIGHT AND TO HIS GREAT SURPRISE AND DISMAY IT WASN'T THERE AT ALL THEN HE WAS WORRIED HE HURRIEDLY CALLED THE Helper ASKED WHAT HAD HAPPENED TO HIS BELONGINGS AND LEARNED HE HAD PUT THEM IN ANOTHER Car WHICH FOR THE MOMENT COULDN'T BE SEEN BUT A Closer Scanning PROVED THE Car HAD NOT BEEN MOVED AND EVERYTHING TURNED OUT ALL RIGHT AFTER ALL I THANK YOU

While old fashioned brass hats talk about a big land army after the war, General Bayerlein, commander of the Panzer Lehr division, now a prisoner, has given some interesting information to U. S. officers abroad. He reports that if the U. S. army had stepped up tactical air warfare last August, after our breakthrough into France, we could have won the war sooner.

At that time, U. S. planes were bombing German factories but not concentrating heavily on tactical bombing—in other words bombing of enemy troops. . . . Wonder what the effect would be if the new Goop bomb, which spreads unquenchable fire in every direction, were dropped wholesale on Japanese troops in action?

U. S. and Franco's Radio
Top officials of OWI are seriously considering using the American taxpayers' money to buy time on Franco's Spanish radio network.

Up until last week, OWI was broadcasting over the Rabat, North African station (which is French) in order to reach the Spanish people. According to OWI executive Thurman Barnard, "several programs a day carrying the American story are broadcast to the Spanish people."

But despite the recent action of the San Francisco conference in plainly vetoing the admission of Fascist Spain into the United Nations, OWI is now considering a radio hookup over Franco's government owned network.

Looking Backward Forty Years Ago

LaMonte Milling and Grain Co. received a thousand bushels of wheat yesterday at LaMonte, the first of the 1905 crop. The quality was good. It was delivered by Dr. H. C. Mitchell and William T. Hull, for which they received 75 cents a bushel.

Fletcher Walmsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walmsley of this city, who left the City of Mexico six months ago in company with F. E. Thayer of Los Angeles, Cal. for a tour of South America, arrived last night and is the guest of his parents for a few days after which he will return to the city of Mexico where he is engaged in business.

About six young couples gathered at R. A. Higdon's office last night where they enjoyed a private social. The evening was spent in games, stories and a few selections in elocution. Refreshments of orange cakes and ices were served.

Lightning struck the spire of the Catholic church at Warrensburg last night and set the structure on fire. The fire department had a three hours' fight with the flames on account of extreme low pressure.

WE FLEW Without GUNS

This is a true story of the men who fly the "hump"—carrying passengers and cargo over the high Himalayas between India and China. Pilots call it the toughest airline route in the world.

PIN-UP GIRL XVI

WE didn't have much to read at the cottage at Dinjan, so every time we returned from Calcutta we brought back some magazines or sometimes a book or two. I don't know who it was that brought in the January 17 issue of Peek, but whoever it was I love him as a brother. One of the pictures in that magazine had a profound effect on my life.

She was blonde, the girl in this picture. Blonde and blue-eyed and built like—well, like only one girl in all the world. Gerry Ewing. That was her name. She was pictured with a group of other girls who danced with her at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe in New York. They all wore little-girl costumes with short flouncey ruffled skirts, big sashes around their waists and colored bows in their hair. Gerry was sitting on the floor reading a book at a kid party, and I sat there in the lounge of our cottage on the other side of the world moaning softly to myself.

The other pilots began to gather around to see what was bothering me. When they saw that picture the wolf in them came to the surface with a chorus of low whistles, deep sighs and smacking lips. Petach in a frenzy grabbed the magazine out of my hands; Bob Robertson snatched it away from him; I leaped on Robertson, but too late. Lane had it by then, his eyes bulging as he devoured the beauty of that page. I was in agony for fear the sheet would be torn—and then Gingiss, Solomon-like, saved the day. He picked up a chair, balancing it over Skippy's head.

Two of the boys who took part in the brief melee over Gerry's picture that night were Jerry Robertson and "Ridge" Hammel, both of Pennsylvania. Joe had been a Flying Tiger before signing on with C. N. A. C. and Ridge had only recently joined us, having transferred from Pan-American's African branch. Ridge hadn't checked out yet as a flight cap-

"Put that picture down, Brother Lane," he said. "We'll settle this thing in gentlemanly fashion, before someone gets killed."

Skippy obliged under the threat of the raised chair and Gingiss explained his plan.

"That girl is definitely a prize, boys," Gingiss said. "She has everything—and when I say everything, I mean to include that gorgeous soft white thigh which some of you may not have noticed—like hell! But we can't all have that girl. We can't all even dream of having her. Only one of us can be that lucky. We'll draw lots, and the lucky winner will get the picture all for himself. He'll be permitted to dream about her all he wants; he may even write her a letter. In fact, I think that ought to be one of the conditions. The winner will have to write her a letter, and if she replies he'll have to read her letter aloud to all of us. He'll have to read us his letter, too, before he sends it."

I was given the privilege of drawing the first card. Gingiss shuffled them and at least four of the wolves cut them to make sure they weren't stacked. I picked up the top card, turned it over. It was the ace of spades.

My letter to Gerry Ewing was a masterpiece in many ways, but I still don't know why she never answered it. Even to this day she has never given me a good explanation for that little bit of rudeness.

Fire Damage $1,500 To Incinerator Plant

An estimated $1500 fire damage resulted to the city incinerator plant, 112 East Hogan street, mid-afternoon Wednesday. The wooden roof, windows, and part of the interior were destroyed. The building is of brick.

Both fire companies were on tain on the Himalaya run and was flying as a co-pilot, usually with Rosbert. They were scheduled to take off the morning following the discussion over the picture a half an hour after me on the run to Kunming. The weather was mean even on the ground that day; the monsoon season was well begun, and rain had been lashing the field all night. It was still pouring down as I waded through the muck from the flight office to my plane.

The first plane out every morning always took about a half-hour start on the others and radioed back information about the weather and any Jap activity noticed along the way. In view of the Zeros Petach and I had run into on the southern route the day before, I took the northern route this time, even though I realized, because of the drop in temperature overnight, that I would probably be heading into an ice storm.

ABOUT an hour out of the base I decided to head south. The plane was so loaded with ice I couldn't get it above 17,000 feet—not high enough to go over the Hump on the northern route—so I had either to go back to Dinjan or take a chance on getting far enough south to melt off the ice.

The ice storm was moving west, apparently, because Rosbert ran into it a shorter distance out of Dinjan than I had 25 or 30 minutes before. When I told him over the phones that I was going to head south I also told him why. "If I tried to get back to the base I'd take on a double load, Joe, and I'm too heavy right now to risk it."

"Okay, Gen," Rosbert replied. "But I'm not as far out as you are. I think I'll head back and wait for it to clear up. . . ."

That was the last we heard of Joe Rosbert and Ridge Hammel until 49 days later when they came rumbling out of the jungle on a British Army truck in what was probably the most remarkable return from the unknown world of Lower Tibet that any white men have ever made.

Specially blended to give you an extra flavor "lift"

The unusually full flavor of Edwards Coffee comes from the way we blend and roast—a formula slowly perfected over 40 years. It is a painstaking method, but we believe it is the only way to give you coffee of such exceptional richness, strength and aroma. We invite you to try Edwards Coffee for 10 days. Your money will be refunded if it doesn't give you a delightful flavor "lift".

WE SELECT the choicest Latin American coffees—beans of a certain shape, color and size from famous coffee-growing districts. Only when these coffees meet our rigid standards do we blend them... using extreme care to achieve exactly the right combination for full flavor.

WE ROAST by the controlled Thermato process which brings out all the natural goodness in the bean. And because we roast and grind only to your grocer's order, Edwards Coffee is really fresh. Buy a pound. Make your personal test of its fine, rich flavor.

NEW YORK, June 28—(AP)—When the ring's "ferocious gentleman," Freddie (Red) Cochrane—well, he says he's not a bum—was telling off the boxing writers the other day, he insisted that he was the only boxer who ever had beaten two world champions in successive bouts... Freddie would have to go back only three years before his victories over Fritz Zivic and Lew Jenkins to find when Henry Armstrong took the welterweight title from Barney Ross—on May 31, 1938—and in his next start—August 17—whipped Lou Ambers for the lightweight crown.

Corn Crop Is Far Behind

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—The nation's vital corn crop—the raw material of meats, dairy products, poultry and eggs—continues to be plagued by wet weather in some important producing areas.

A weather bureau report issued Wednesday showed this crop is from 12 days to three weeks behind normal due to delays in planting caused by excessive rainfall and floods during the spring planting season, and to wet cool weather since then.

The development of the corn crop during the next two or three weeks will have a strong influence on livestock production policies to be followed by the country's new food boss, Clinton Anderson, who will become secretary of agriculture and war food administrator next week.

Anderson has promised to establish policies to encourage greater feeding of beef cattle and the production of more hogs and poultry.

An unfavorable corn crop would tend, however, to rule out such a policy, because reserve stocks of corn and other feed grains are not sufficient to support increased livestock production.

In the mid-western corn belt, conditions appeared to be the least favorable in Missouri. Only about 60 per cent of that state's corn acreage has been planted, the bureau said, adding that much replanting will be necessary.

In Iowa and Nebraska, the crop was said to have made considerable improvement during the past week, but stands were described as less favorable than at this time a year ago.

Fewer Shells For Shotguns

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—America's hunters will have to be content with about 300,000,000 shotgun shells this year—about half as many as were available in 1944.

Hunting will be tight despite victory in Europe. Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, director of the fish and wildlife service Wednesday. The allocation by the War Production Board, however, is more than double the limit of 120,000,000 shells upon which the army was insisting when the question of this year's quota came up at the time of the Ardennes offensive last December.

Going Home to Have Babies

By Edward D. Ball
BAD WIESSEE, Germany, June 28—(AP)—The baby factories Hitler built for the SS are closing down, but not for lack of business.
Thousands of babies conceived before the German surrender will be born in the next seven months, many of them to unwed mothers, but instead of coming into the world in such idyllic surroundings as this Bavarian garden spot, they will be born at home or in city hospitals.
Under the Nazi regime dozens of maternity homes were scattered in hotels about Bavaria and in quiet resort towns like Bad Wiessee where shuttered hotels were commandeered.
Maintaining them was the NSV—National Socialist Volkswohlfahrt—the party's welfare branch which looked after the babies intended to be Germany's future leaders.
Women Going Home
But now that the party is defunct and the bombs have stopped falling in the cities, the young fraus and frauleins are going back home to have their babies.

Under the Nazi mass production program babies came cheap compared with costs in the United States.
Those who could afford it were charged 3 1/2 to four marks a day before the birth of the baby, six marks a day for 10 days after the birth, and 4 1/2 marks a day thereafter. All doctors and medical costs were included and those who could not afford it paid nothing.
The Allies have placed a value of 10 cents on the mark.
In Bad Wiessee alone, a small resort town on the shore of a mountain-rimmed lake, there are 15 maternity homes. All will be closed within a few weeks.

Authorize FSA To Select for Tenant Loans

Veterans May Buy Farms in County Of Their Choice

The County FSA committee of Pettis county has been authorized to start selection of prospective applicants for tenant purchase loans for the 1946 fiscal year, according to Oscar H. DeWolf, FSA Supervisor.
Congress has appropriated $50,000,000 for farm purchases by worthy tenants. Of this amount, $25,000,000 has been earmarked for loans to veterans of World War II, and the remaining $25,000,000 can be used either for veterans or civilian applicants.
For the veteran, another concession has been made in that the county loan limitations are waived for veteran applicants.
Veterans will be able to purchase farms in any county of their choice, provided the farms they select come within the loan requirements. These requirements are intended as a protection for both veteran and civilian applicants, and provide that the farm be purchased at a price that can be repaid at ordinary long-time prices.
New Price Limitation
A new price limitation pertaining only to non-veterans makes provision for the purchase of a farm at fifteen per cent above the average price of all farms of thirty acres or more in the county. This will increase over that of previous years the amount an applicant may pay for a farm. Earning capacity of farms at long-time yields and prices will still be used in determining the value of farms.
A committee of three prominent farmers in each county helps Farm Security to administer this program. Their work includes as-

Hear Claims Of Losses In Handling Food

Praise To WFA Is Given With Criticism Voiced

By Howard Fieger
WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—A house sub-committee asserted Wednesday mismanagement in the war food administration had resulted in food and money losses running into "many millions of dollars."

It also accused some WFA officials of giving false information to congress when it sought to check up on the agency's operations.

In a report on a lengthy investigation—much of it conducted undercover—an appropriations sub-committee headed by Rep. Traver (D-Ga) accused WFA of wasteful warehousing practices, poor book-keeping and inadequate records, lax hiring methods and "inefficiency and dereliction x x x on the part of some officials."

Along with its criticism, the committee had words of praise for WFA. It said the agency "has met a national need in a period of extreme emergency and the over-all result has been one of which the people of the country have the right to be proud." It also praised War Food Administrator Marvin Jones as helpful and cooperative.

Commenting on the report, Jones said the committee charges referred to only one phase of the WFA's food operations—the storing and handling of perishable foods in connection with lend-lease and from price support operations.

"Naturally, there were some losses, but the over-all losses were less than those which normally occur in regular channels of trade," Jones said in a statement.

Quick Action Necessary
"This food had to be produced, stored, transported and loaded on ships. During a portion of the time there were great submarine sinkings. We were frequently met with the choice of whether we would proceed slowly and avoid losses or act quickly and get the food to the battlefronts on time."

Jones said it was necessary to handle WFA food with a shortage of labor, materials, warehousing and transportation.

Names Two To Highway Body
Move Starts To Reorganize For Postwar Plans
JEFFERSON CITY, June 28—(AP)—Gov. Phil Donnelly Wednesday appointed John J. Powers of St. Louis and William A. Snider of Albany to the Missouri highway commission in a move to reorganize it for handling a $90,000,000 postwar road building program.

At the same time the governor said he would suggest that the new commission select Paul Jones, already a member, as chairman when it meets to reorganize on July 10.
Powers, 45, a Democrat, succeeds W. C. Connett of St. Louis. The new man is vice president and general manager of the McCabe-Powers Auto Body company which has won three army-navy "E"s for war production. He is a graduate of Washington university.
Snider, 65, a Republican, is a large scale farmer and stock feeder in Gentry county where he has been a good road booster, and officer in the Albany Production Credit Association and active in midwestern farm organization. He succeeds George H. Davis of Kansas City, former commission chairman.
Davis and Connett resigned effective June 15. Accepting their withdrawal, the governor said he wanted the commission to reorganize on a basis of broader service to the public and to get in shape for the huge highway building program planned for the first three postwar years.
Other appointments today included:
State board of Chiropractic examiners—Dr. T. C. Oyler, Brookfield, reappointed; Dr. S. J. Durham, Jefferson City, succeeding Dr. Roy M. Keller, Sedalia; Dr. Otto C. Reinert, St. Louis, succeeding Dr. Kenneth L. O'Bryan, St. Louis; Dr. F. L. Sisson, Jr., Sikeston, succeeding Dr. John C. Bull, Hannibal; Dr. Kenneth H. Davis, Kansas City, to fill a vacancy.

Fire Bombs On Four Jap Cities

Twenty-Three Of Enemy Surface Craft Sunk By American Planes

GUAM, Friday, June 29.—(P)—Between 450 and 500 American B-29s unloaded more than 3,000 tons of fire bombs on four Japanese cities—Sasebo, Moji, Noboka and Okayama—in a dawn raid against the Nippon mainland today.

They were the first incendiary attacks on the four war industry centers, bringing to 18 the number of Japanese cities fire bombed in 29 strikes by the B-29s of the 21st bomber command.

Washington announcement of the raid said Sasebo had previously been hit, presumably by explosive bombs.

Sasebo, Moji and Noboka are Kyushu Island ports. Okayama is an industrial city on Honshu Island.

Sasebo, with a population of 206,000, is one of Japan's four principal naval bases. It is on the strategic narrows between Kyushu and the island of Tsushima.

Moji is a coal shipping port on the southern shore of Shimonoseki Strait at the entrance to the Inland sea. It has a population of about 140,000.

Noboka, on the northeastern Kyushu coast, is one of Japan's important military explosive production centers. Four plants produce basic chemicals for explosives. The city has a population of about 80,000.

Okayama is about 100 miles west of Osaka and has a variety of military industries, with airplane parts the principal war product. It has a population of about 163,000.

Sink Surface Craft

GUAM, Friday, June 29.—(P)—Twenty-three enemy surface craft were sunk or damaged Wednesday and Thursday by American planes off Korea, in Japanese home waters and in the southern Ryukyus, headquarters reported today.

Off Korea and in empire waters on those two days, search planes of fleet air wing one sank a small tanker, a small cargo ship, an unidentified vessel, four small craft and a freighter. A small freighter-transport, five small cargo ships, a small coastal cargo ship and a lugger were damaged.

On the same dates, Marine and Army planes of the Tactical Air force hit the Amami Island group north of conquered Okinawa and the Sakishima group to the south. The raiders set a small cargo ship and coastal vessel afire, sank two luggers and damaged two other coastal vessels and a barge.

Other raids were made on Truk and Yap in the Carolines, enemy bases in the Marshalls and in the Palaus.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said enemy planes dropped a few bombs in the Okinawa area Wednesday "without damage to our forces." Night fighters shot down one raider.

Police said the woman, who was charged with homicide, had confessed she stuffed gags in the mouths of the children, John, 6, and Reginald, 2, and held their noses until they were dead. Body Found Of Missing Engineer GROVE, Kas., June 28.—(P)—Recovery of the body of Clarence J. Grubb of Kansas City, engineer on a Union Pacific freight train, ended a nine-hour search today after he was discovered missing from the cab of his speeding engine at 7 a. m. this morning.

His body was located in the muddy waters of Soldier creek by Bill McGuire, veteran Topeka river man, who joined the search at the request of Shawnee County Sheriff Elb M. Beal. The body was lodged at the edge of the creek about 20 feet below a bridge the train was crossing about a half mile from Grove and 14 miles northwest of Topeka.

T. Dillon, also of Kansas City and fireman on the train, said he noticed Grubb's disappearance shortly after the train's engine had crossed the bridge. He brought the train to a halt before it had crossed the bridge completely and began a search.

Daughter of Man Murdered Writes Police

Seeks Information Of Tragedy In This County in 1925

A letter received by Chief of Police Anson Fennell Thursday from Mrs. Ruth C. Smyth, Maple avenue, West Chester, Pa., asks for information concerning the death of her father, Aden R. Clawson who according to a newspaper clipping she has, was killed near Sedalia in 1924. The letter follows:

"June 25, 1945

"Chief of Police Sedalia, Mo.

"Dear Sir: I am writing to you for information concerning my father, Aden R. Clawson, who was found dead near Sedalia in August, 1924. The only information I have regarding his death is a newspaper clipping saying that one Everett Adams was at the time being questioned.

"My father was at that time a resident of Newburgh, N. Y., I believe. I have no idea why he was in Missouri at the time. I wonder if you would be kind enough to tell me in a letter some of the facts of the case, the circumstances as they ultimately developed and also, if possible, any information you might have concerning his family and background.

"I realize this may be asking quite a favor of you to dig into your files as far back as 1924, but this matter is of the greatest importance to me. I am his only child and I know very little about my father or any of my relatives.

"Sincerely and gratefully yours, "Mrs. Ruth C. Smyth "530 Maple avenue, "West Chester, Pa."

Sedalia's Recall Murder

Sedalia's will recall the brutal murder in this county, although the year was 1925 instead of 1924, when Everett Adams, then 16 years old, picked up and questioned in Garden City, Kas., about a car in which he was riding, admitted he had killed the owner of the car, who was giving him a ride, thrown his body in a road-side ditch near LaMonte, and taken the car.

It was learned the murdered man was a Mr. Aden R. Clawson from Lodi, N. Y., a school teacher, who was riding through the state enroute west for a vacation visit in Colorado.

Adams was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Truman Glad In Greetings Of Home Folks

President And Landon Will Have Chat Today

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—(P)—Harry S. Truman dropped his presidential role temporarily today to drink in the praise of the home folks, which, he confided, "swells me up like a pizen pup."

He moved among his friends and neighbors of Jackson county like this county judge of old, chatting with his barber, his former haberdashery store partner and hundreds more just like them.

He's been a Jackson county man all the time, and the presidency hasn't changed him, he said, and he can't for the life of him see why it is now that people say, "there he goes! That's the guy."

In rare form for the second day of his homecoming—yesterday nearby Independence celebrated in his honor—the President told a 50th anniversary celebration of the University of Kansas City law school which he attended nights from 1923 to 1925:

"I can't be President of the United States in Jackson county." He went back to the university tonight to receive the honorary degree of doctor of laws, which, he conceded, he didn't have to work for.

It was his 26th wedding anniversary and he took time out from several hundred handshakes at his federal building Presidential offices, the trip to the university and a hair cutting from his old barber, Frank Spina, to send red roses to Mrs. Truman.

In the meantime, former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas arranged to come to Kansas City for a chat. The 1936 Republican presidential nominee will confer with the President here tomorrow.

Scores Killed On Runaway Train

PARIS, June 28.—(P)—A runaway Express train travelling backwards at 125 miles an hour derailed, hurtled into a deep ravine and burst into flames in French Morocco June 24 and between 50 and 100 persons were killed, news dispatches said today.

The train was crowded with French soldiers on leave. French news agency dispatches quoted railroad officials as saying the engineer had stopped the train north of Meknes and left his cab, neglecting to apply the brakes, to try to rescue a child who was electrocuted while playing at a nearby high tension wire. The train rolled backward with no one at the controls. The engineer was arrested.

Predict More Meat In July

Ration Points Go Up On Canned Fish—Cut On Cheese

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(P)—OPA today predicted slightly more meat in July. At the same time it cut point values for cheese, but increased the ration cost of margarine and canned fish.

The point revisions are effective for the period from next Sunday through July 28, OPA said, adding that no downward adjustments for meat are included because the supply increase is only 5 per cent.

The agency reported that while meat is reaching retail stores in greater quantity and with greater regularity, "the scarcity is still acute" in many areas.

Margarine goes from 12 to 14 points a pound because third quarter supply is down, but the butter value is unchanged and current point costs for canned fruits and vegetables are being continued for the new ration period.

Advance In Points

The increase for canned fish is two to three points a pound, resulting from a 35 per cent slash in supply for the year ahead as compared with the last 12 months. Such varieties as salmon, shrimp and Tuna go from six to nine points a pound, while mackerel and sardines get a new value of six points, up two.

Cheese ration values are pared two to four points a pound to prevent spoilage while production restrictions are suspended.

Cheddar cheese values are trimmed four points to eight a pound, such varieties as Limburger, neutschel, chamois, and cream from six to four, and such as buttermilk and baker's cheese from four to two.

The only adjustments in the meat chart are increase of one or two points a pound for seven fat pork cuts, including fatbacks, jowls, plates, sides and plate and jowl bacon.

The July outlook, OPA reported, is for more beef, veal and mutton, but only 81,100,000 pounds of pork a week as compared with 91,240,000 this month, and 10,030,000 pounds of lamb weekly, down 980,000 from the June average.

On the increase side, there will be an average of 90,090,000 pounds of beef weekly, up 16,560,000; veal, 24,180,000 up 1,140,000; mutton 2,790,000 up 600,000.

Pastor Drowns In Aiding Rescue

ST. LOUIS, June 28.—(P)—The Rev. Cecil Jesse, pastor of the Metzel Memorial Baptist church of Kirkwood, drowned in the Meramec river today while assisting an eight-year-old boy to safety from their overturned canoe.

The boy, William Word, and his two brothers, Edward, 11, and Howell Word, Jr., 16, who were also in the canoe, were later taken to safety by a fisherman who rowed to the scene of the capsizing.

Howell told Kirkwood police he and his brothers are all good swimmers. The craft overturned, he said, when Rev. Jesse arose to change places with one of the boys. Howell and his brothers swam to the overturned canoe and grasped its sides. Then Rev. Jesse started to swim ashore with William. They had gone only a few feet, Howell said, when the minister suddenly sank and did not reappear.

Rev. Jesse's body was recovered six hours after the accident. He was 35.

$2,275,000 For Direct Relief

Approved By Conferees Of State Legislature

JEFFERSON CITY, June 28.—(P)—Missouri's weary representatives shoved the last big obstacle from their summer vacation path tonight by adopting a compromise direct relief allotment of $2,275,000.

The vote was 102-0, sending the bill to the senate for action tomorrow.

Rep. R. J. King, Jr., of Franklin county, house appropriations committee chairman, drew no argument when he called for approval of the conference committee compromise figure. Earlier he had blocked a $2,350,000 proposal.

The senate is expected to take up the relief cudgels soon after it convenes at 10 a. m. tomorrow. In that body a storm signal was hoisted by Sen. Ralph Erdwin (R) of Concordia, who refused to sign the conference report and said he might submit a minority finding. Originally the senate plumped for a relief allotment of $2,700,000—a full $700,000 over the amount first approved by the house.

Passage of a bill carrying $2,275,000 for general assistance would raise the session's total general fund appropriations for the next fiscal year to $39,234,438 and make it one of the heaviest spending legislatures Missouri ever had.

That total includes $815,953 in deficiency appropriations not properly chargeable to next year's allocations. In addition the assembly has voted to set aside $16,000,000 as a postwar reserve.

For 1943, state agencies spent $29,232,967 of general fund money and in 1944 the total reported by the state auditor was $34,142,237.

The relief tangle popped up while both branches were struggling through a stifling hot day to clear their calendars of "must" legislation before starting a scheduled two month vacation tomorrow. When they return next September, revision of laws to conform with the state's new constitution will have top priority.

The President's grew up and farmed at little Grandview population 500, and since his marriage has lived in nearby Independence.

"I'm just a home town boy of greater Independence," he said in a brief talk.

"I can't tell you how much I appreciate this honor. I do appreciate it much more than I can express.

The banquet at which Mrs. Truman and Margaret were presented, preceded the final official welcoming ceremony in Truman's homecoming—a meeting in the Municipal auditorium at which he spoke and received an honorary degree of doctor of laws from the University of Kansas City School of Law, which he attended 20 years ago.

President In Call To Ratify The Charter

Anxious That United States Be First In Approval

By ERNEST B. VACCARO INDEPENDENCE, Mo., June 28.—(P)—President Truman called tonight for United States ratification first of the projected United Nations Peace Charter.

He spoke at exercises in which he was given the honorary degree of doctor of laws by the University of Kansas City's school of law.

"We are going to have to ratify that Charter, and I want to see the United States be the first to do it," the President told about 10,000 persons assembled in the Municipal auditorium for Kansas City's greeting to the President.

An infectious grin spread over the President's face as he strode down the aisle of the auditorium to receive the first honorary degree ever awarded by the university. He bantered with the reporters as he passed the press table, solemnly arrayed.

The citation asserted it was given for the President's action in having restored confidence at home and inspiration to the people abroad by promoting "universal law and order, freedom and good will," and as "a good neighbor to all the world."

The President reminded his audience that two documents were signed at San Francisco—the United Nations Charter and a World Court document, and that the ratification of both will be required to put them into effect and make possible "world peace for the next few generations."

"It is a world in which we look forward, and it is my opinion that this great republic is—"

It is up to the republic to carry out these ideals of Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt," the President continued.

That is one of the tasks which has been assigned to me," he asserted, and he added, "I am going to try to carry it out."

"Unless America leads the way," he added "there will be no peace in the world."

Clad in a black and purple gown and wearing the traditional cap, the former night school law student receiving his first degree in person—Georgetown awarded him one in absentia—the President asserted: "I must have the wholehearted and unqualified support of the country to win the Japanese war and then to win the peace."

"Two Big Accomplishments"

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—(P)—President Truman tonight told the Merchants Association jokingly that he had accomplished two things in his homecoming here; he had filled the great Independence Later Day Saints auditorium for the first time in his life, and that he had annexed the territory of Kansas City to greater Independence.

"Since I've been so successful in this, I think I'll try to annex the whole thing to greater Grandview," the President said at a banquet in his honor.

The President's grew up and farmed at little Grandview population 500, and since his marriage has lived in nearby Independence.

"I'm just a home town boy of greater Independence," he said in a brief talk.

"I can't tell you how much I appreciate this honor. I do appreciate it much more than I can express.

Seek Suspects In A Slaying

BOSTON, June 28.—(P)—Two young men wearing navy uniforms were sought tonight by naval intelligence officers and police for questioning in the Turkish bath slaying of Chase MacArthur, 61, Massachusetts and Maine educator.

The battered and bleeding nude body of the former Foxboro, Mass., school superintendent, was found last night on a cot in a bathroom room, which, Police Captain Louis A. Di Sessa said, had been assigned to the two uniformed men.

MacArthur had been recently named to the teaching staff of Ricker Junior College in Houlton, Me.

Medical examiner Timothy Leary said that MacArthur died from being "throttled."

"His wind was shut off and he was asphyxiated," the medical examiner reported. "The punches he received did not cause death."

Kiwanis to Sponsor Model Plane Contest

Scheduled for July 29 At Sedalia Municipal Airport

A model airplane demonstration to spark plans for a contest to be sponsored by the Sedalia Kiwanis club next month was given at the club noonday meeting Thursday at Hotel Bothwell.

A. F. "June" Pierce, of St. Joseph, chairman of youth activities for the Mo-Kan-Ark district of Kiwanis, explained the model airplane program carried out by the St. Joseph club with the youth of that community, which was launched six years ago. He also told of a trophy to be awarded by the district in the model aircraft contests this season, and enumerated the values and advantages of this activity for both youth and adults.

Lee White, of Sedalia, "revved up" the motors of two model airplanes in a demonstration of how the craft operate. He also was in charge of a display showing the parts and equipment used in constructing the planes.

Contest July 29

The model airplane contest to be sponsored by the Sedalia Kiwanis club under the direct supervision of the Boys and Girls committee is scheduled for July 29 at the Sedalia Municipal airport.

The meeting was presided over by President Clyde Heynen and the program chairman, R. C. Hemphill, introduced the speaker. Arrangements for the program were made by Elmer E. Sterling and Pinkney Miller.

Several boys attended the program part of the meeting and Larry Roberts was a guest of his father Laurence Roberts.

Fred Schlapper, purchasing agent for the Midwest Auto Stores, was taken in as a new member, having been a member of the Kiwanis club in Pittsburg, Kas., before moving to Sedalia.

Health Engineer Stand Firm

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., June 28.—(P)—Claude E. Murray, city health engineer who also serves as pastor of a Baptist church, remained firm tonight in his determination that "anyone, OPA investigators included," who handles foodstuffs in Poplar Bluff must have a health certificate.

Murray ordered two OPA inspectors out of a frozen food locker plant Tuesday because he said they did not have food handlers' certificates required by Poplar Bluff ordinance.

The OPA obtained a federal court order yesterday directing the owners of the locker company to permit inspection and the order was served by a federal deputy marshal today.

"I was in the plant when the order was served," Murray said, and I asked the marshal if it applied to me. He told me it did not. Therefore I will continue to insist that the OPA men obtain health cards before they attempt to examine the contents of these lockers."

Murray said the two OPA inspectors, Marcus H. Solomon and Douglas Cox of St. Louis, were also in the locker plant when the order was served, but after hearing his conversation with the federal marshal did not attempt to continue the investigation which Murray stopped two days ago.

"I am sure that my hands are not tied," the city official said, "and until I personally am restrained by federal court order, or until the OPA inspectors get the necessary physical examinations, I will continue to resist any efforts on their part to examine the lockers and handle the contents."

Murray said that he was leaving town tonight on business pertaining to the OPA investigation and that he would probably be gone several days.

U.S. Ships To Hostile Waters

Three Planes Of Japanese Shot Down By Guns Of Surface Craft

MANILA, Friday, June 29.—(P)—Presence of the U. S. Seventh fleet in the hostile waters of Makassar straits between Celebes and southeast Borneo was disclosed today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur. He announced that surface craft had shot down three Japanese planes there Monday.

There was no further report on the action and no confirmation of persistent Tokyo radio reports that an Allied fleet had been bombarding Japanese positions around the Borneo southeast coast port of Balikpapan since June 15. The Japanese have contended landing attempts already had been made on that coast.

MacArthur's communique did disclose that planes of the U. S. Fifth and 13th air forces and the Royal Australian air force continued heavy neutralizing attacks on gun positions and airdromes on the coast of Dutch Borneo.

Bombs On Balikpapan

More than 90 Liberators and 40 Mitchell medium bombers and a score of Lightning fighters dropped 286 tons of bombs on Balikpapan, as well as on the Manghar airdrome 12 miles northeast, and in the Redet sector 70 miles south of the Australian-conquered island of Tarakan.

Mention of Allied surface craft activity in Makassar Straits was the first in nearly three and one-half years.

It was on Jan. 24, 1942, that four old four-stack destroyers of the slender Asiatic fleet of Rear Adm. Thomas C. Hart executed a brilliant close-range torpedo attack against a Japanese convoy in an action which became known officially as the battle of Makassar Straits. That action was credited with stalling a Java-bound Japanese force at Balikpapan for some time.

While the present significant return of American warships to Makassar Straits was being disclosed, MacArthur announced American Sixth division troops and Filipino guerrillas were maintaining steady pressure on all sides of the remnants of Japanese forces on the island of Luzon.

Crash-Landed Crippled Plane In Inland Sea

Cletie Phegley, Of Frisco, Was Crew Member

Two Navy fliers who were forced to crash-land their crippled plane in the waters of Japan's inland sea are back in action today after one of the most phenomenal air-sea rescues in military records.

The airmen are John Morris, U. S. N. R., of 57 Howard street, Haverhill, Massachusetts, and Cletie L. Phegley, Aviation Radioman Third Class, of Frisco, Mo.

Their rescuers, both of whom flew tiny Kingfishers to make the pickup under the nose of Jap anti-aircraft gunners, are Lieutenant Charles S. Tanner, U. S. N., of Sikeston, Mo., and Lieutenant (junior grade) Donald O. Comb, U. S. N. R., of Minneapolis, Minn. Shot By Enemy

The story developed when the motor of the Heildive bomber-bomber flown by Ensign Morris and Radioman Phegley was shot out by enemy fire during a carrier-plane attack on Kyushu.

While Phegley radioed for help, Morris bailed the plane over the target area and dropped into the Japanese sea about four miles north of Kyushu.

The fliers got out of the sinking plane and into their two-man life raft. For the next five-and-a-half hours they floated about in the icy waters, helpless but not alone. A Japanese tanker sped toward the scene, and came close. The downed airmen could pick out the grinning faces of the Jap crewmen standing on deck. Then, suddenly, carrier planes still in the area spotted the tanker and swooped in for a bombing-rafting attack that left the craft on the run.

Raft Never Spotted
Two enemy destroyers steamed up and down a couple of miles away, but never spotted the raft or its occupants. An enemy plane circled the fliers at low altitude, but got in the way of an American pilot who shot it down, flaming.

The game of tag ended when the two Kingfishers, escorted by 16 fighting Hellcats, waded through the heavy fire from Jap ship and shore batteries, landed in the choppy waters and took the downed airmen aboard.

A single Jap plane tried to block the escape route. It went down blazing under the fighter pilot's gunfire.

The rescue, believed to be the first ever made in the inland sea, also marked a new distance record for Kingfisher missions.

Charter Signed By 50 Nations

Ambassador Of China First To Put Name On Historic Paper

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—(P)—The United Nations conference adjourned today at 7:20 p. m. (Central War Time).

The final signature—that of Eugenio Silva Pena of Guatemala—was affixed to the United Nations charter at 9:20 p. m. Central War time tonight.

Pena, who completed the signing ceremony begun at noon, is Guatemala's ambassador to the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—(P)—Delegates of 50 nations united by war signed today a charter upon which they pin their hopes to remain united in peace.

Dr. Wellington Koo of China brushed his name down the page of history—and the first of the United Nations to be invaded by the Axis became the first to affix a signature.

Thus began an hour long ceremony in which 153 delegates moved in alphabetical order—after China, Russia, Britain and France had signed—to the great blue table, surrounded by the flags of all the United Nations, centering the klieg-lighted auditorium of San Francisco's Veterans building.

United States Last

The United States preferred to wait until last—partly because it is host country but largely because it wanted to sign in the afternoon so that President Truman might witness the ceremony more conveniently.

The delegates, as they gathered in the auditorium, found a common appreciation in the words of an old Negro spiritual which proclaims:

"I ain't Gwine study war no more, no more."

One by one, the delegates were called to the table upon which lay the blue leather-bound charter that their top spokesmen said represented the hopes of the living and a promise of "never again" to the fallen dead.

Japanese Are Aroused By Invasion Fear

On Okinawa The 'Nips' Leave Caves To Surrender

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—(P)—Tokyo radio in a vibrant display of invasion nerves today reported an Allied landing in the southwest Pacific, a pre-invasion bombardment of Nipponese holdings in Borneo and a confused forecast of an American thrust closer to the Japanese homeland.

The All-India radio, monitored in London, said it heard a Japanese report that an Allied force was attempting a landing on an island halfway between American-conquered Okinawa and Japan's southern shores.

This may have been a confused reception of a Tokyo English language broadcast, beamed to Europe and heard in the United States by the FCC, predicting an Allied invasion of the Amami and Kikai Islands in the Amami group, north of Okinawa.

Premier Kanaro Suzuki for the first time admitted the Americans had taken Okinawa and warned his countrymen that the Yanks' "arrogant counteroffensive xxxxx" is expected to be further intensified and lead even to the invasion of our homeland.

The Premier's message, reported by the Domei Japanese agency recorded by the FCC, told the Nipponese the crisis facing their country "is the greatest one since the Mongolian invasion."

Domei said without confirmation Allied units had landed on Ternate, a small island off the east coast of Japanese-held Halmahera in the Moluccas, about 350 miles southeast of the Philippines.

The Allies already are established in the Moluccas, American forces having occupied Morotai Island northeast of Halmahera in the drive from New Guinea to the Philippines.

Tokyo radio, after boasting that an Allied invasion of Balikpapan on the southwest coast of Borneo had been thwarted by Japanese defenders, came out again with claims that a 30-ship Allied force was bombarding the vital oil refinery center.

On May 11, 1943, she blasted the shore installations on Attu. After that she was at Kiska, Makin, the Marshalls, Eniwetok, Engob, the Marianas, Guam, Anguar, Peleliu, Leyte and Surigao straits. Then on January 6 of this year, in company with other battleships resurfaced from Pearl Harbor, she began the shelling of Lingayen Gulf on Luzon in the Philippines.

"Combat Fatigue"

When the old battleship, commissioned at Newport News, Va., in 1916, reached Hunter's Point she was suffering from a severe case of combat fatigue. As many as 3,980 men worked on her at times during the three months as she was in drydock. Even then she went to sea again with a lot of the work the navy wanted still undone.

But Captain W. M. Moses and a crew of 1400 took her to sea again in high spirits. She's out there some place now, as the war crowds close to the Japanese home islands and the last hiding places of the son of heaven's imperial navy.

speeches by Mayor John B. Gage and others praising him, told the audience that if he hadn't sat there, "I never in the world would have been able to find out just what kind of a fellow I am."

When he was going to the law school, he said, he was county judge from the eastern district and deserving Democrats, looking for jobs, poured in their appeals on him while he tried to listen to law lectures.

Job seekers, he added, even followed him to the court of appeals law library, and consequently "I didn't get to finish the job I started."

Consequently, he quipped, "it is a happy occasion for me to get the honor I am to get today, without having to do all the work."

He told of his appreciation of the overwhelming reception here, saying while he doesn't deserve it, "it swells me up like a pizened pup."

And then he provoked another cheer when he declared:

"I know nearly everybody down here in front of me." He said he wanted to continue calling them all by their first names and added that in Jackson county, he wanted to be treated like the county judge.

"And to tell you the honest truth," he continued "I am not having half as much trouble making decisions as President of the United States as I had when I was presiding judge of the county court." In the old days, he said, he had to get agreement from at least one other judge.

"Now, I don't have to get anybody's agreement but Harry Truman's, and sometimes I am afraid that agreement comes too quickly," the President asserted. "Let's hope it doesn't."

Successor Be Named Monday

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—(P)—President Truman will send the name of his nominee to succeed Edward R. Stettinius as secretary of state to the Senate Monday.

Charles Ross, the president's press secretary, in making the announcement refused to comment on reports that James F. Byrnes, former war mobilization director, would be named for the post.

Ross said Stettinius' resignation was effective yesterday and that Joseph C. Grew would continue as acting secretary until a successor has been confirmed by the Senate.

The president will be in his offices here Friday and Saturday, Ross said.

Slug Messenger; Steal $6,000

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 28.—(P)—All available detectives were placed on special detail tonight in an effort to apprehend two bandits who slugged Mrs. Golda Messer, Union Bus Terminal messenger, and escaped with $6,232 in a downtown holdup today.

Police were checking finger prints on an abandoned automobile believed to have been used by the two robbers. The car, stolen Tuesday from a parking lot here had an Illinois license tag wired over the Oklahoma license plate. The Illinois tag was reported stolen from a car here.

Mrs. Messer told police that shortly after she left the bus station with the day's deposits, she was approached by a man who told her "this is a stickup, lady." She said he snatched the money bag and a large envelope containing checks and currency and knocked her down as she tried to jerk away.

The robber ran to a parked car which was driven by another man, she said, and they escaped while a dozen persons were near the scene.

Glass Workers To End Strike

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(P)—CIO glass workers agreed tonight, under prodding by the War Labor Board, to call off a week-old strike at 11 plants of the Pittsburgh plate glass and Libbey-Owens-Ford glass companies.

President Joseph Froesch international president of the union, reported to the board after an hour of conferences with other local and international officers, that the union would acquiesce in the board's request to return 17,000 workers to their posts.

Acting Chairman Lloyd K. Garrison of the WLB agreed, at the request of Froesch, that the status quo on interpretation of the old contract, which has been extended, would be continued pending final disposition of the dispute, which arose over terms of a new agreement.

President and Mrs. Truman Married 26 Years Thursday

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., June 28.—(P)—The first lady, Mrs. Harry Truman, is celebrating more than the president's homecoming today. This is the Trumans' 26th wedding anniversary.

The couple were married June 28, 1919, in Independence, shortly after his return from the war. They were engaged before President Truman went overseas.

Modest and retiring, Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret, have taken little active part in the festivities arranged in welcoming the president. Mrs. Truman awaited his arrival at their newly decorated home yesterday while Margaret and Vivian Truman, the president's brother, went to the airport to meet him.

Says Nazi Intent To Bomb New York

21ST ARMY GROUP HEADQUARTERS, June 28.—(P)—RAF officers said today that the Germans had nearly completed preparations for bombing New York from a "colossal airfield" near Oslo when the war ended.

"Forty giant bombers with a 7,000-mile range were found on this base—the largest Luftwaffe field I have ever seen," one senior officer said.

"They were a new type bomber developed by Heinkel. They now are being dismantled for study. German ground crews said the planes were held in readiness for a mission to New York."

Chinese Take Railway Station at Kwangei

CHUNGKING, June 28.—(P)—The Chinese high command announced today that Chinese forces assaulting Liuchow had captured a railway station in the western suburbs of that strategic Kwangsi province city and a part of the airfield to the south.

Field dispatches earlier had reported that the Chinese column on the west, paced by low-flying American fighter bombers, was battling toward a junction with other forces battering at Liuchow's south railway station.

The fighting was described as heavy.

Ready to Deal Japs Their Final Blow

CHUNGKING, June 28.—(P)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek said today the Allies are getting their forces ready to deal Japan its final blow.

If the Americans land on the Japanese home islands and defeat the enemy there, the Chinese will find it simple to deal with the Japanese on the Asiatic mainland, the generalissimo asserted.

He said American-trained Chinese divisions had reached the point enabling them "to go into combat soon."

White Shirts Not in Stock

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—(P)—President Truman, too, has trouble finding white shirts these days.

Enroute from his office to the University of Kansas City, the president ordered his party detoured several blocks to permit him to stop for a chat with his old war buddy and former business partner, Edward Jacobson.

As he entered Jacobson's boardinghouse, the president turned to

Mrs. Truman made her first appearance at the reception in the church last night, and the assemblage rose to honor them. She and Margaret were in Kansas City with the president today for the various picnics, dinners and receptions, and the address at the auditorium.

Then the family went back to Independence for two days of rest and quiet before the president returns to Washington Sunday.

Shortly after his momentous press conference yesterday, President Truman went to visit his 92-year-old mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman at Grandview, Mo. "I knew you'd come to see me," his mother said. They talked about 19 minutes.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(P)—Gen. Mark W. Clark has been designated chief of United States occupation forces in Austria, under secretary of war Patterson announced today.

Clark, who commanded the 15th army group in the Italian campaign, will be the supreme American authority on military government and political problems in the United States occupation zone in Austria, Patterson said.

With some variations, Patterson added, Austria will be occupied in the same manner as Germany with four zones of occupation—one each for the four major powers. Vienna, the capital, also will be divided into four zones similar to the pattern on the division of Berlin.

White Shirts Not in Stock

Reporters and said, "Eddie and I used to have one like this." The old Truman and Jacobson haberdashery was located at 12th and Baltimore in Kansas City. It was liquidated in 1922.

As he was ready to leave, the president asked Jacobson if he had three white shirts, size 15½.

"I'm sorry Harry," replied his old partner. "There isn't a one in stock. I'll see what I can do for you."

Informal Chat With Newsmen

President Goes To His Own Barber For Hair Cut; Has Gift for His Wife

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—(P)—President Truman held an impromptu and informal chat with reporters today—while Frank Spina, the battery barber in Truman's old World War I outfit, trimmed the presidential hair.

Truman told reporters that he saw little hope for any special observance of his 26th wedding anniversary today, but that he had a present for Mrs. Truman. Spina, who has been cutting the president's hair since 1917 whenever Truman was at home, said Mr. Truman was mighty glad to see him.

"I shouted 'Hi Cap,' when he went by in the parade yesterday. The president waved at me and pointed to his head, and I knew what he wanted."

The president shook hands with upward of 200 persons this morning, half of them while Spina worked.

He told reporters he had no comment on a House appropriations sub-committee food report.

His Dentist A Major

For 25 years back home, Maj. George M. Arrowsmith was Harry S. Truman's dentist. Now that Truman is president, Arrowsmith is the president's personal dentist.

Several weeks ago Arrowsmith, now stationed at Ft. Myers, Va., dropped in at the White House to see his old patient.

"George," the president said, "You've been taking care of these teeth of mine for a long time—about 25 years, I guess. How about continuing the job?"

Nothing more was said until last night when Arrowsmith, home on leave, reminisced with the president at the home of Roger T. Sermon, mayor of Independence, Mo.

"Is I is, or is I ain't?" he said as he shook the president's hand.

"George, you know you are," was the reply.

Formally Charge Senator Falzone

JEFFERSON CITY, June 28.—(P)—Sen. Joseph A. Falzone, St. Louis county Republican, would be expelled from the Missouri senate if it sustains formal charges submitted late last night.

A special committee alleged that Falzone was not qualified to remain a senator because he sought $1,500 to get a beauty shop bill through the general assembly. It recommended that he be tried in an open hearing starting next Sept. 17 but the senate deferred action on the charges and an outline of trial procedure.

Falzone, who was present when the reports were presented at 11 p. m., made no comment.

President is Overwhelmed By Treatment

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—(P)—"I am overwhelmed by my treatment here," the president told a gathering of 2,000 persons on the University of Kansas City quadrangle.

"I can't for the life of me understand what it is about me now that, when I go down the street, makes people say in hushed tones 'There he goes now,' and 'That's him, the president.' I don't understand it because I am still just the same man you have known for 30 or 40 years.

"Last night I was overwhelmed by that great outpouring of people in Independence. I believe I could have called at least 5,000 of those 8,000 to 10,000 persons there by their first name and the rest I could have called Mr. and Mrs.

"Here today I can call almost all of you by your first name and I just want to continue to do that."

The president, who attended the school of law from 1923 to 1925, will be given an honorary degree of laws, the first his alma mater has ever bestowed.

Columbia spent a few days recently with Mrs. Barton's sister, Mrs. M. W. Benning, and Mr. Benning.

Ratification Of Charter Up to Senate

Eyes of the World Centered on America, States Connally

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(P)—"We leagued our armed might for war," Tom Connally told the senate today. "Now let us league our moral and material might for peace."

Thus the tall Texas Democrat, chairman of the foreign relations committee and a delegate at the San Francisco conference, opened the campaign for speedy ratification of the United Nations charter by a highly receptive senate.

"The world charter for peace is knocking at the doors of the senate," he said, adding:

"We shall not turn it away." Admittedly worn by nearly nine weeks of day and night deliberations at the conference, the broad-shouldered Texan strapped on his legislative spurs and called for a speedy, favorable decision in his committee and the senate itself.

"Early ratification here will stimulate and encourage ratification by other nations," he declared. "The eyes of the entire world are centered on what we do here."

U. S. Decision Important

"Foreign nations know that the United Nations organization for peace and security will face failure and futility unless the United States is a member. The fate of world peace may depend upon our decision."

Connally seemingly had no doubt what that decision would be. Before he spoke, he estimated to reporters that no more than ten senators would oppose ratification. Bolstering his prediction was an Associated Press tabulation showing 54 members who plan to vote for the charter barring unforeseen developments, five more who say they probably will and none who would go on record in outright opposition.

Describing the charter as "a monumental performance," Connally told his colleagues:

"Mere documents and language and phrases cannot themselves prevent war and preserve peace. They must rest upon the will and the purposes and the desires of the peoples an dnations of the world."

Sketching a broad outline of the developing organization, he devoted particular attention to the widely discussed veto power vested in the Big Five nations, permanent members of the 11-nation security council.

Peace, If United

"The basis thesis of the rule of unanimity of the five permanent members of the security council is that as long as the great powers remain united, they shall be able to preserve the peace of the world," Connally said.

"If the great powers should be divided—if discord should arise—they could not successfully preserve international peace."

Connally gave repeated assurance that the rights and sovereignty of this nation will not be imperilled by participation in the organization.

"We must remember, however, that world peace will cost something," he said. "It is worth something."

"In the charter we have endeavored to construct the mechanism to create that cooperation for the peace. . . . It is a noble beginning."
